

AgriScot

The Farm Business Event

Kite are pleased to be supporting Agriscot 2018 on Wednesday 21 November and would love for you to join us for refreshments in the hospitality suite in the upper foyer of the Highland Hall from:

- 9.00 – 11.30 - for bacon butties and coffee
- 14.00 – 16.30 - for tea and scones

We will also be holding a seminar on:

‘The outlook, opportunities, and obstacles for Scottish dairy farmers’

Chris Walkland, independent dairy market analyst and journalist, together with David Keiley, Kite Consulting’s Scottish based senior consultant, will present an overview of the present market situation, prospects for the next few months and immediate practical challenges facing Scottish dairy farmers. They’ll also assess what might lie ahead for dairy farming in Scotland over the medium term, from an economic and technical perspective.

Location - Seminar Room 2 between 13.00 - 13.45

We look forward to seeing you!
